* F	* Are you interested in the option of receiving Continuing Education Unit (CEU) credit for completed CITI Program courses?
1	CITI is pleased to offer CE credits and units for purchase to learners qualifying for CE eligibility while concurrently meeting their institutions training requirements.
	CE credits/units for physicians, psychologists, nurses, social workers and other professions allowed to use AMA PRA Category 1 credits for re-certification are available for many CITI courses – with that availability indicated on course and module listings. Please register your interest for CE credits below by checking the "YES" or "NO" dots, and, when applicable, types of credits you wish to earn at bottom of page. Please read texts entered for each option carefully.
	Yes At the start of your course, you will be prompted to click on a "CE Information" page link located at the top of your grade book and to VIEW and ACKNOWLEDGE accreditation and credit designation statements, learning objectives, faculty disclosures, types, number and costs of credits available for your course.
	No The CE functionality will not be activated for your course. Credits and units will therefore not be available to you for purchase after you start your course. You can change your preference to "YES" before such time however by clicking on the "CE Credit Status" tab located at the top of your grade book page. No

Step 6 asks for some demographic information required by South Alabama. Complete these questions. At the bottom, where it asks what course you plan to take, select Responsible Conduct of Research and proceed to Step 7.

Step 7 asks for the specific modules you plan to take and ask you to check all that apply. In this case, select Responsible Conduct of Research at a minimum.

* The Office of Research Compliance has partnered with the Collaborative Institutional Training Initiative (CITI) program to allow USA affiliated researchers the opportunity to participate in online research compliance and ethics education. All faculty, staff and students who are engaged in the conduct or analysis of research must complete the appropriate compliance training that meets your specific research needs. The modules offered are outlined below: Courses available include (please select all that apply):
