The University of South Alabama’s Department of Political Science and Criminal Justice invites applications for a full-time non-tenure track continuing faculty position in criminal justice at the rank of instructor or assistant professor, starting August 15, 2015. The minimum degree requirement is a Masters degree in Criminal Justice. Applicants with a Ph.D. degree in Criminal Justice or a closely related field will be preferable. Applicants with degrees in other fields will not be considered. Applicants with a Master’s degree will be eligible for the instructor rank while those with a Ph.D. will be considered at the rank of assistant professor. Prior college-level teaching experience is highly desirable. The successful candidate will teach four (4) courses each semester (fall and spring), primarily on the Baldwin County campus of the University of South Alabama. He/she will also be responsible for advising criminal justice students on the Baldwin County campus and be actively engaged in program development.

Applicants should send a letter of application and curriculum vitae and arrange to have three original letters of reference and official transcripts sent to: Criminal Justice Search Committee, Department of Political Science and Criminal Justice, University of South Alabama, 5991 USA Drive North, Room 226, Mobile, AL 36688-0002. The review of applications begins immediately and will continue until the position is filled.

The University of South Alabama is an Equal Opportunity Employer—Minorities/Females/Veterans/Disabled.
