This guide shows you how to add a Picture-in-Picture effect and create a title clip to a screen capture.

Adding Picture-in-Picture

Select the “Picture-in-Picture” button.
Import Media
Click the “File” menu and select “Import media...”

!Import media

Figure 3. Import media.

Adding Picture-in-Picture Video
Right-click on the imported image or video located in Clip Bin. Select “Add to”, and select “PIP video.”

!Picture-in-Picture menu

Figure 4. Picture-in-Picture menu.

Picture-in-Picture Options
Select the “Preview the PIP track on top of the video track”.
How to Add Picture-in-Picture Effect and Create a Title Clip in Camtasia Studio

Picture-in-Picture Options

You can change Picture-in-Picture properties such as opacity, dimension, and other effects.

Picture-in-Picture Properties

You can change Picture-in-Picture properties such as opacity, dimension, and other effects.

Figure 5. Picture-in-Picture options.

Figure 6. Picture-in-Picture properties.
Positioning and Resizing Picture-in-Picture

Figure 7. Resizing and positioning the Picture-in-Picture effect in the preview window.

Editing Picture-in-Picture

Figure 8. Editing Picture-in-Picture effect in the timeline.
Produce Options

Various preset formats are available to produce.

*For further assistance, contact the Innovation in Learning Center at (251) 461 - 1888.