SPECIAL COURSES

Thank you for visiting our Special Courses page. We hope to provide quality learning opportunities by offering a rich variety of non-credit courses. These courses may suit your desire for enrichment, creativity, and/or enhance your career potential. Our classes are designed to meet the needs of individuals or groups with a common interest. Instructors are selected from our faculty and staff, and local professionals and artists. Many of our non-credit courses will give students the opportunity to earn continuing education credits (CEU’s).

FAQ’S: FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

How do I register and/or pay for a non-credit class?

Registration for a non-credit course can be done by phone. Call (251) 928-8133 to register. We accept checks and cash. Payment can be mailed or presented in person at the following address:
USA Baldwin County Special Courses, 10 N. Summit Street, Fairhope, AL, 36532

How do I receive confirmation regarding registration, payment, and classroom assignment/location?

Participants will receive confirmation of registration and/or payment and classroom location information by phone, e-mail or U.S. mail. Classroom assignments are made a few days before the course begins. For a map of our campus, visit the “About” tab and click on “Locations.”

Am I eligible for a refund?

If a class is canceled by USA Baldwin County, participants will receive a full refund. Participant registration cancellation must be received by 12 p.m. (noon) five working days before the class start date to receive a full refund.

When is a class canceled by USA Baldwin County?

Based on enrollment, a decision will be made to cancel the class three to five working days before the course start date. We reserve the right to cancel a class if there is insufficient enrollment. Students will not be charged for a class that has been canceled.

Where are non-credit classes held?
Non-credit classes are held at the USA Baldwin County Campus. Visit our “About” tab and click on ‘Locations.”

What if there is severe weather or major emergencies?

We follow official University of South Alabama decisions regarding class closing. The only official sources of USA weather and emergency information are university-wide email, the USA Weather and Emergency Hotline at 251-460-6999 and the university’s emergency alert page, www.southalabama.edu/alert.

How do I purchase a required book for a non-credit class?

USA Baldwin County does not sell or provide non-credit books. Please check with your favorite bookstore or on-line. If a book is required or recommended, participants will receive book information and ISBN number with a copy of the registration form.
